

RESCHEDULED REGIONAL WORKSHOP:

NYAPT Regional Training Program Presents:

Growing Up Too Soon:
Dealing with the Loss of a Parent Using Play Therapy Techniques.

August 19, 2011- 4:00pm-7:00pm

Integrative Counseling Services

2nd floor conference room

5 W. Cayuga St., Oswego, N.Y. 13126

About the Workshop:

This workshop will focus on issues relating to grief and loss among young children dealing with the loss of a parent due to deployment, divorce, incarceration or death. Participants can expect an in-depth examination of grief, manifesting behaviors and themes seen in the play room relating to parental loss. A variety of techniques will be presented for helping clients manage the symptoms and issues that are associated with grief and parental loss. Additionally, several techniques will be discussed for working with caregivers of children who have lost a parent. The presentation will be given in PowerPoint format and will involve interactive lecture and interactive components. The theoretical framework in which this presentation falls is Prescriptive Play Therapy.

About the Presenter:

Ashley Lawton, MS, CCPT is the Clinical Coordinator at Integrative Counseling Services. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and her Master's Degree in Mental Health Counseling at SUNY Oswego State University. She is working towards obtaining her licensure as a Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC) through the state of New York and she is credentialed as a Child-Centered Play Therapist (CCPT) through the National Institute of Relationship Enhancement (NIRE). Ashley provides counseling services to adolescents and young adults, as well as play therapy to children. Her duties as Clinical Coordinator include liaison to the sub-contracted counselors, assisting with the coordination of intakes, supervision of undergraduate interns, maintaining organizational aspects, and administrative office work.

Training is free. Certificates verifying 3 CE hours of APT approved training will be available for a fee of $20.00. Payment will be collected at the door.
